Details

The Capri Boutique Hotel has been owned by the Esposito family for generations. It started life in the early 1900s, when the family opened their home to guests and it has still retained that warm and friendly atmosphere today. It has recently been restored to the highest standards, in bright Mediterranean style, with traditional majolica floors and whitewashed vaulted ceilings and archways.

Its guest rooms and suites, many with their own balconies and terraces, tumble down through the greenery of the cliff walls and offer magnificent views of Capri's azure sea. The larger suites have lofty vaulted ceilings and many have Jacuzzi baths for much needed relaxation after touring Capri's nearby boutiques.

Breakfast will be served to you on the rooftop sun terrace, or on your private balcony, against the panoramic backdrop. And if you prefer a quiet evening to yourselves, a simple dinner can be served on your terrace – a perfect romantic evening.

This small hotel is a delightfully tranquil place from which to explore Capri's many sights, as well as those of the mainland, and it is made all the more welcoming by the family's warm and attentive hospitality.
