

The Little Mill – Charming Farmhouse: Capri

Summary

This charming small hotel is one of our favourite hideaways on the stunning island of Capri. In the vicinity of Emperor Tiberius's villa and walking distance from the famous "Blue Grotto" sea cave, this 3 star hotel enjoys an exclusive setting in a peaceful environment. The rooms are decorated in typical bright Mediterranean style, all with pretty private terraces leading onto the glorious gardens; ideal for relaxing. A short stroll down the hill takes you to the beach club, with pool perched above the breath-taking coastline, or to the designer shops and bistros of the nearby town. This pretty hotel is a good value base for holidays on Capri and with a new self-catering apartment now open it's also a great choice for family holidays.

Details

The Viva family, recently built the hotel on the site of an old olive mill and already it has become a delightful country residence, with flower filled gardens, scented by lemon trees. The centrepiece of the pretty grounds is the colonnade walkway, with Romanesque stone pillars so characteristic of this region. The small restaurant serves home baked cakes and breads for breakfast on the garden terrace.

The rooms and suites are furnished in bright Mediterranean style and all have a pretty private terrace that is ideal for sunbathing. Alternatively, sun-seekers should head to the private beach near the entrance to the Grotta Azzura, where guests are entitled to discounted entry.

The many restaurants and sights of the town of Anacapri (including a panoramic chair lift to the top of Monte Solaro) are just a short walk away (through stone-walled country lanes) and there is also a frequent bus service. For those wishing to explore further a field, guided coastal walks can be arranged, or you can even hire a scooter to get around Italian-style.
