

Florence Town & Market Houses – Luxury Boutique Hotel & Apartment: Florence, Tuscany

Summary

It's been difficult to find exactly the right boutique hotel in Florence for our discerning guests ... until now. Better than the usual fare, we discovered the newly opened Florence Town House: a small luxury hotel hidden behind a traditional palazzo facade in central Florence. This romantic hotel is great for luxury holidays of honeymoons in a gentile atmosphere. The separate Market House is a pretty self-catering apartment with courtyard garden in the ancient market quarter. Both are excellent value havens in the heart of the splendour of Florence.

Newly restored FTH2 with roof terrace now open!

Details

These properties offer a genuine slice of Italian city life. Just a few minutes' walk from the Duomo and Ponte Vecchio, The Florence Town House makes a perfect base for exploring the many cultural delights of the City centre, as well as indulging in some very designer shopping. The Town House is hidden behind an elegant renaissance façade and consists of 6 newly renovated ensuite guest rooms. With a daytime reception and concierge service, this property offers a good value and flexible twist on traditional hotel accommodation.

The attention to detail is perfect, with pastel painted walls, period furnishings and original terracotta floors. All guest rooms have Satellite TV and DVD with a selection of films (for those nights in). The opulent guest lounge-cum-breakfast room is equipped with complementary refreshments and tipples – a perfect home-coming after a day's sight-seeing. And to begin the day, the freshly cooked gourmet breakfasts, with breads, cakes and jams are delicious.

For complete privacy, the Market House (decorated in the same style, and accommodating up to 4 people) is a great self-catering option. It has a pretty, traditional kitchen-diner, leading onto a tranquil courtyard garden. Located on the ground floor of a small shuttered palazzo in the bustling market zone, there is all manner of fresh food and local produce available daily on the doorstep. Here guests can do their shopping the traditional way, along with Italian grandmothers and the city centre is just a few minutes away.
