Details

Set among "condos" in the modern part of town, and just 2 minutes walk from the sea, this hotel combines facilities and a location which are hard to beat. The rooms are fitted with the latest technology and with connecting rooms and suites available they are perfect for families. The pool and fitness area will keep you busy at the hotel, whilst children enjoy the Kids Club at the beach. The restaurant offers a choice of dishes based on the healthy traditions of delicious Salentine cuisine.

Set on the golden sands of the Ionian Sea, the ancient town of Gallipoli is a delight, whose old town juts into the crystal waters and is made up of a colourful labyrinth of narrow lanes. Around every corner are examples of the baroque architecture, which has proved to be a major attraction for visitors to Puglia. At the fish markets and carnivals you'll see tradition fused with the unique smells and sounds of modern life, in this bustling and colourful town. The surrounding countryside is perfect for walks and horse-riding.

At night, the hotel's baby-sitting service leaves you free to explore the town's range of restaurants and bars, with entertainment to suit all tastes and ages. The hotel also offers a weekly gala dinner and piano bar, for relaxed evenings in.

This luxury hotel is undergoing complete refurbishment and upgrade. Bookings are being taken now for holidays from June 2010 onwards.
