

St. Peter's Beach Hotel – Luxury Family Beach Hotel: Sardinia

Summary

This luxury family resort is located on the glorious pink sands of southern Sardinia, where eucalyptus trees line crystal waters. The villa style hotel buildings cluster around the pretty pool and gardens, and are typically Mediterranean with a pastel colour scheme. With a perfect mix of relaxation and activities on offer for all the family, and glorious beaches just a few steps away, St. Peter's Beach Hotel is sure to be a firm favourite for family holidays in Sardinia.

Details

St. Peter's Beach Hotel enjoys a backdrop of charming landscapes with virgin forests and an unspoilt natural environment. But the main draw is, of course, the coastline. Here the emerald water skirts fine sand of a particular golden pink hue. Undoubtedly, much of your time here will be spent on the hotel's lovely beach, reached by a short walk through fragrant eucalyptus trees.

The hotel buildings are in contemporary Mediterranean style with arches and colonnades leading off the central pool area and beauty zone. The rooms, all in the delightful courtyard buildings, are skilfully furnished with a cool, fresh décor, and all have an outdoor area.

On energetic days you can enjoy a variety watersports. Diving, windsurfing, waterskiing, canoeing and sailing are all available nearby, and for those of us who aren't water-babies, tennis and horse-riding is also on hand. Why not hire the hotel's mountain bikes (or a scooter if you really want to enter in the Italian spirit) to explore this picturesque and unspoilt area?

An activities club is available for children from 4-17yrs from early June to mid Sept, at no extra cost. With a variety of entertainment on offer for the younger members of the family, adults can indulge in a beauty treatment, a day trip to the interesting local towns, or perhaps even a longer trip up to the glamorous Emerald Coast in the north.
