

The Winery – Luxury Boutique Hotel: Tuscany

Summary

This small luxury hotel is a splendid guest house in the heart of the Chianti hills in central Tuscany. Perched just above a pretty market town, this small working vineyard enjoys far-reaching views of the surrounding vines and hilltop towns. From here you can easily explore sights of Siena, San Gimignano, Cortona and many other notable Tuscan towns. Not to be missed is a tour of the Winery's cutting edge cellar and of course a tasting of the premium Chianti produced there. On more lazy days by the infinity pool at this boutique luxury hotel, your private butler will attend to your every need. This is the perfect hideaway for romantic holidays or honeymoons in Tuscany. With only 5 guest rooms, this property is also available for hire as a private villa by small groups.

Details

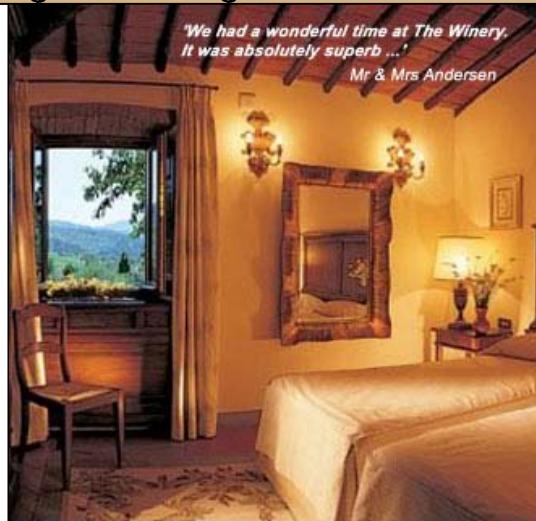

The ancient vineyards at this luxury hotel are perched high on a hilltop overlooking a typical Tuscan market town in the heart of the Chianti region. An old farmhouse sits above the modern winery and cellars, which are hidden from view, hollowed into the rock below. There are magical panoramas of vineyards, pencil cypress and mellow tiled rooftops from the dramatic infinity pool and gardens.

The farmhouse has been sympathetically restored with four guest rooms tucked into the eaves. (If you are looking for inspiration for a stylish holiday home conversion, this is it). There are several comfortable sitting rooms with huge open fireplaces and outside there are spacious terraces and gardens from which to enjoy those views.

This luxury villa is decorated in lovely Tuscan style, with period pieces and warm wooden furniture. To add an extra touch of style, a private butler waits on your every need, whether that be to cook and serve a meal of your choice, or to book outings and restaurants in the region.

The long-established vineyard produces award-winning 'Super Tuscan' reds, including the famous 50 & 50, a delicious white Chardonnay and a delectable olive oil. The winery has quickly become recognised by connoisseurs for the exceptional quality of wines, as well as its innovation in growing and blending the grapes. A wine tasting and tour is not to be missed!
