

The Little White Inn – Luxury Boutique Hotel: Ronda, Spain

Summary

Nestled in the foothills of Ronda, one of Spain's quintessential White Towns ("Pueblos Blancos") in Andalucia, the Little White Inn is perfect "micro-boutique" hotel. A romantic retreat, the 16th century exterior masks a high fashion glossy interior. The expansive gardens and inviting pool of this small luxury hotel in southern Spain are a real oasis and since the Spanish finca is still a working winery, you can be guaranteed an excellent glass or two on the candlelit terraces at the end of the day. This boutique hotel is ideal for romantic holidays or honeymoons in Spain.

Details

Its total restoration only last year has transformed this traditional winery and manor house into a fashionable hideaway that has the last word in style. High gloss hardwood floors and crisp white bed linen are the perfect foil to the occasional colourful piece of artwork. The shady colonnade and sunny gardens carry on the theme, with stylish outdoor furnishings and feature lighting leading down to the large pool. For the ultimate in privacy, take a garden room (one with mezzanine bedroom reached by spiral staircase).

The restaurant serves excellent local cuisine, much of it prepared from the hotel's own orchard garden. Of course, the house wine is "a must", made from grapes grown in the surrounding vineyards, as well as a plot under Ronda's famous bridge. Don't miss the tour and tastings in the "bodega" wine cellar next to the hotel.

Explore the stunning countryside on horseback or bike, or even take a hot air balloon ride to drink in the beauty of the rolling Andalucian hills. An hour's walk along a meandering path leads to Ronda (although by road it's only a kilometre). Ronda's old town is well worth exploring, and be sure to drop into one of the many casual cafes and eateries. The stunning city of Seville is only an hour's drive away (with Cordoba and Granada only a little further), as is the glitz and glamour of Marbella, Puerto Banus and the beaches of the Costa del Sol. On more lazy days, just chill out by the pool or enjoy some pampering at the small onsite spa.
