

The King's House – '4 star' Luxury Boutique Hotel: Seville, Spain

Summary

This luxury boutique hotel is a romantic hideaway in Seville's ancient Jewish quarter. Its pretty pastel-coloured guest rooms are arranged around tranquil courtyards, packed with tropical greenery. Seville's renowned palaces and flamboyant architecture are on the doorstep of this small luxury hotel, and its fashionable rooftop pool, spa and bar are the perfect chill-out zone after a full day's sightseeing. A great choice for romantic holidays or luxury minibreaks in fashionable Seville.

Details

The hotel is entered via an orange tree filled plaza and immediately exudes an air of calm. Its shady riad-style patios are a welcome respite from the heat of the city and the cheery pots of bright geraniums, which adorn every spare inch of the windowsills, lift the spirits. The accommodation itself is roomy and decorated in a muted palette, with country-style furnishings in keeping with the era of this 18th century building. The comfortable guest lounges and restaurant are hosts to an eclectic mix of contemporary and antique pieces, and the crowning glory of the hotel is its cool rooftop pool and ultra-fashionable chill-out terrace and bar.

Like all Spanish cities, Seville is late to rise and parties into the night, so there's time for a lie in before breakfast! Then hit the sights, starting with the famous Moorish palace, Casa de Pilatos, a close neighbour of the King's House hotel. Seville's narrow streets reveal a wealth of architectural splendour. Notable examples are the splendid Alcazar Palace and gardens, and the grand city cathedral.

Back at the hotel, flickering candles light the courtyards and rooftop in the evenings, and there's time for a reviving dip in the pool, or spa treatment, before emerging to sample Seville's nightlife. If you don't eat in the hotel's own restaurant, tiny vibrant tapas bars await, together with numerous bars and flamenco clubs. Visit at Easter for the "Semana Santa", or in the first week of April for the "Feria de abril" to see the city at its most exuberant.
